Re: United States v. Gil et al as to Elizabeth Araujo
20 Cr 199 (KMW)

Dear Judge Wood:

I represent Elizabeth Araujo in the above-captioned matter and I write requesting that the Court temporarily amend her bail conditions so that she can travel to the Dominican Republic from June 9-12 to attend a graduation from an artisan program which she completed.] Granted

I have spoken with Pre-trial Services and communicated with the Government, both of whom "take no position" with regard to this request.

If the Court approves this temporary bail modification, then Ms. Araujo will make arrangements to retrieve her passport from her Pre-Trial Supervision officer, advise her officer of her travel details, and then re-surrender her passport upon her return.

This Court has previously granted a similar request for Ms. Araujo to go to the Dominican Republic, during which time she took the program, and she fully complied with the Court's temporary bail modification.

Accordingly, if the foregoing request meets with the Court's approval, then we respectfully request that the Court "So Order" this letter granting the application.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Respectfully,

Daniel S. Parker
